

Dr. med. univ.
Vinzenz Auersperg

Curriculum vitae

Privacy:	Birth July 17th, 1960 at Klagenfurt, Carinthia, Austria. Married since 1990 with Catherine Auersperg, borne Feldscher Children: Clemens (1991), Paula (1992), Constantin (1993), Clara (1995) Faibles for (classical) music, history, hunting, skiing. Addresses: Private: Ebelsberger Schlossweg 5 4030 Linz Austria, Europe vinzenz(at)auersperg.cc Office: Orthopädie LKH Steyr (since 2006) Sierninger Strasse 170 4400 Steyr Austria, Europe vinzenz.auersperg(at)gespag.at & Orthopädie LKH Kirchdorf (in addition since 2013) Hausmanningerstraße 8 4560 Kirchdorf Austria, Europe vinzenz.auersperg(at)gespag.at
Education and career:	Gymnasium and Matura (final exams; 1979) at Seitenstetten, Austria. Military service at the Jagdpanzer-Batallion 1, Wr. Neustadt, 1979-1980. Study of human medicine at University of Vienna, Graduation 1988 (Dr. med. univ.). Internships: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ 1988 Orthopaedic University Clinic Vienna ▪ 1989 Lorenz Böhler Hospital Vienna ▪ 1989-1990 General Hospital Amstetten ▪ 1990-1991 General Hospital Mödling, Lower Austria ▪ 1991-1997 AKH Linz, Upper Austria, 1992 -1996 as orthopaedic trainee 1997-2006 orthopaedic surgeon at the AKH Linz, Upper Austria Since 2006 Primarius (Surgeon in Chief) at the Orthopaedic Dept. of the Public Hospital Steyr, Upper Austria, since 2013 in addition at the Orthopaedic Dept. of the Public Hospital Kirchdorf, Upper Austria.
Personal skills and competences:	Orthopaedic main topics are joint preserving procedures (arthroscopic knee and shoulder operations) and joint replacements (hip, knee, shoulder).

Scientific work:	More than 50 presentations at national and international meetings and conventions, publications in Austrian, German and US-American journals and teaching work at the nursing school of the AKH Linz and at the Fachhochschule Steyr (University of Health Organizational Logistics)
Extracorporeal shockwave therapy:	Since 1992, in the beginning experience only with bone indications, later on treatment of all orthopaedic indications in shockwave treatment.

Disclosure

Conflict of interest statement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Vinzenz Auersperg is currently an investigator on clinical studies evaluating total hip arthroplasty funded by Smith&Nephew and receives personal remuneration from that. ▪ Vinzenz Auersperg received in the past fundings from Boehringer-Ingelheim to participate at advisory board meetings regarding oral medications for thromboembolism. ▪ Vinzenz Auersperg received in the past grants from Zimmer (before Centerpulse, Sulzer Medical AG and Allopro) to participate clinical studies evaluating total hip and knee arthroplasty and received personal remuneration from that. ▪ In the past Vinzenz Auersperg received from 1992 to 1994 support for travel costs from Siemens AG (working group for development of orthopaedic shockwave therapy). ▪ Vinzenz Auersperg has at the moment no other current financial interests or conflicts with any company producing and/or trading devices for shockwave therapy.
Used orthopaedic shockwave devices:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Osteostar (Siemens AG) at the AKH Linz (1992-2006) ▪ SonoCur Plus (Siemens AG) at the AKH Linz (1996-2006) ▪ MODULITH SLX F2 (STORZ MEDICAL GmbH) used since 2006 for high energy shockwave therapy at the urology dept. LKH Steyr ▪ Orthowave 180 C (MTS Europe GmbH) used for soft tissue and small bone disorders since 2007 at the orthopaedic dept. LKH Steyr ▪ DolorClast (EMS Medical AG) used for soft tissue disorders since 2006 at the dept. for physical therapy LKH Steyr